DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species:

Species 1, claims 2-3, drawn to the LED printing system of claim 2 wherein the printer controller (C) includes a multiplier (14) for multiplying the original data with the calibration data before sending them to the dither block (12).

Species 2, claims 5-8, drawn to the LED printing system of claim 1 wherein the printer controller (C) includes: a first adder (15) connected with the data source (S); a threshold block (T) connected with the first adder (15); a second adder (17) connected with the first adder (15); a multiplexer (16) connected with the second adder (17); a calibration data memory (30) connected with the multiplexer (16); an error memory (18) connected with the second adder (17); and a calculation block (22) connected with the error memory (18) on one hand and connected with the first adder (15) on the other hand.

Species 3, claims 9-14, drawn to the LED printing system of claim 1 wherein the printer controller (C) includes: a dither block (12) connected with the data source (S); a first adder (15) connected with the dither block (12); a latch (50) connected with the first adder (15); a second adder (17) connected with the latch (50) on one hand and the first adder (15) on the other hand; an error prediction block (32) connected with the latch (50); and a calibration data memory (30) connected with the error prediction block (32).

Species 4, claims 15-21, drawn to the LED printing system of claim 1 including a dither block (12) between the data source (S) and the printer controller (C).

Additionally the following sub-species exist:

Sub-Species A, claim 22, drawn to the LED printing system of claim 1 wherein the data source (S) is a computer.

Sub-Species B, claim 22, drawn to the LED printing system of claim 1 wherein the data source (S) is a scanner.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, claims 1 and 24-26 are generic.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which depend from or otherwise require all the limitations of an allowable generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species.

MPEP § 809.02(a).

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.
